EXPERTS AND INSTRUCTORS

ERTC Academy experts are remarkably skilled professionals dedicated to present their knowledge and expertise using different yet convenient training methodologies, including comprehensive and applied materials, interactive workshops, and practical exercises to enhance trainees' knowledge and skills, fostering both personal and professional growth

CORPORATE SOCIAL RESPONSIBILITY

ERTC offers a PhD scholarship in the field of social sciences to encourage the next generation of researchers to apply scientific practice in the study of societal problems and phenomena. The winning students benefit from mentoring, scientific training, and financial support to complete and advance their doctoral dissertations.

The scholarship is offered in the name of the late Dr. Saad al-Din Ibrahim, Distinguished Professor of Sociology (AUC), and the president of the Ibn Khaldun Center for Development Studies.

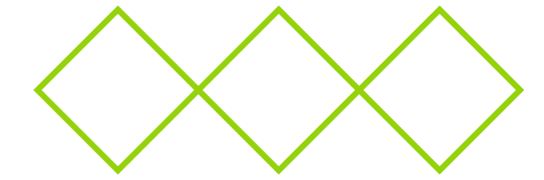

This scholarship was first granted in 2023 and continues this year to give the chance of more researchers.

Applications open in March each year and close in June, with the names of the winners being announced in November of the same year.

FACILITIES

ERTC Academy has fully equipped training & meeting rooms and computer labs, in addition to a wonderful outdoor space that allows trainers and trainees to practice different activities or make the most of breaks enjoyably.
